

PubCon Search And Social Media Conference Opens Registration For Its Las Vegas Show, November 8- 11, 2010

Austin, TX April 22, 2010 -- PubCon, the premier search and social media conference and expo, has announced that early-bird registration is now open for its multi-track Las Vegas show to be held on November 8 - 11, 2010 at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

PubCon Las Vegas 2010, supported by the industry's leading businesses, speakers, exhibitors, and sponsors involved in social media, Internet marketing, search engines, and online advertising, will offer a week-long look at the future of technology presented by many of the world's top speakers.

Brett Tabke, PubCon's organizer, said, "Our PubCon Las Vegas 2010 conference will be the biggest and most important gathering of search and social media innovators we've ever assembled, and we're happy to open registration today for this major event at early-bird discount rates."

"I believe PubCon Las Vegas 2010 will offer an unrivaled highly-productive conference experience at cost-effective rates, and with the leading technology and online marketing visionaries who will be in Las Vegas, we're confident that every attendee will come away with valuable new ideas and solutions for their business," Tabke added.

"PubCon truly starts where other search and social media conferences end, and during our Las Vegas conference in November a rare vision for the future will be presented by a virtual who's who of technology," Tabke said.

Previous keynote speakers at PubCon have included Zappos chief executive Tony Hsieh, Craigslist founder Craig Newmark, authors Malcolm Gladwell, Guy Kawasaki and Robert X. Cringely, Demand Media co-founder Richard Rosenblatt, and technology enthusiast John Battelle, among others.
