

Google's Matt Cutts To Give Keynote Speech at PubCon South, Austin, 11-13
March 2009

PubCon, the search engine and Internet marketing conference and expo, will feature a keynote speech by Matt Cutts, head of Google's search quality control, at PubCon South, Norris Executive Conference Center, Austin, Texas, on March 11-13, 2009.

Brett Tabke, PubCon's organizer and WebmasterWorld's CEO, said, "I'm delighted to announce Matt will join us in Austin and make a keynote speech for our attendees. With Matt's approachable style, he's helped numerous webmasters at previous events, so I look forward to welcoming him at the Norris Executive Conference Center in Texas."

PubCon South will bring a new marketing opportunity for businesses and attendees to capitalise on one of the major tech hubs around Austin, Houston and Dallas. PubCon South is a multi-track conference with an extensive program of educational, highly topical, with cutting-edge Internet marketing knowledge shared with attendees.

Speakers should apply with their proposal as soon as possible as places are limited.

Early bird conference registration is now open at <http://www.pubcon.com>
